Tygh Valley, Oregon
Memorial Day Weekend – White River Wildlife Area
May 28-30, 2016

You are cordially invited to join Traditional Archers of Oregon for three days of archery fun on the high desert at White River Wildlife Area near Tygh Valley along the historic Oregon Trail. On-site primitive camping with room for RVs and trailers (no hook-ups) will be available starting on Thursday.

Three championship, 15-target 3-D courses, plus kids trail shoot (under adult supervision please) will be set up, as well as a practice area.

Novelties will include a competitive money shoot, the Clanging Balls O'Death and flying goose.

Archers can only shoot recurves, longbows and selfbows. Bring your favorite arrows (wood, metal, carbon) including flu-flu's, but NO broadheads or blunts please! Also, NO sights, releases, binoculars or range finders on the courses.

Pre-register and receive a special raffle ticket and event memento; T-Shirts available by pre-order.

Pets - you are expected to control and clean up after them.

Registration will open on Friday afternoon.

Saturday night catered BBQ dinner with guest speaker/performer, Mark Baker.
Dinner will be tri-tip, chicken, bread, baked beans, green salad, potato salad and dessert.

Enjoy an evening with author, musician, storyteller and traditional bow hunter, Mark Baker. Mark resides in Livingston, Montana; drawn to this place since a teenager by its wild and rural appeal. His professional experiences as a hunting/fishing guide, whitewater rafting guide, logger, custom home and furniture builder, ranch hand, and museum director have reflected his interests and sense of adventure and creativity. He served two terms as president of both the Montana Bowhunters Association and Traditional Bowhunters of Montana, and taught Bowhunter Education classes for 18 years. He is an active member of several other prominent bow hunting and conservation organizations. He currently tours the country entertaining groups, giving seminars and is a freelance writer promoting classic bow hunting and the outdoor ethic.
